

Summer Term 2018
Topic Web: Orange class

Ancient Egypt

Maths

- adding and subtracting within the context of money
- recognise and understand the value of all notes and coins
- be able to calculate money sums and work out the required change
- Know all times tables
- develop mental maths strategies
- solving adding and subtracting word problems within the context of money
- developing multiplication and division skills
- solving multiplication and division word problems

English.

- Texts including Bill's New Frock
- a selection of poetry with the themes of animals, story poems; older poetry and the poems of Michael Rosen and Robert Louis Stevenson
  - Develop reading skills including fluency and understanding
  - Continue to learn spelling patterns
  - Develop use of continuous cursive handwriting style
  - Develop editing techniques
  - Use a wider range of vocabulary and punctuation accurately, including direct speech
  - Further develop grammar knowledge, including use of adverbs and paragraphing

Geography

The geography of Ancient Egypt, including the Nile, the Mediterranean Sea, the Sahara, and the water cycle.

PSHE

- School Values: Creativity
- Circle Time
- Marvellous Me!
- Being a good learner

Art and Design

Our Art and Design this term will be based around artefacts of Ancient Egypt, including pyramids, jewellery, gods; death masks and a sarcophagus !

Science

Animals, including Humans, looking at Teeth, the Digestive System and Food chains.

History We will be finding out about the importance of the river Nile; life in Ancient Egypt for a variety of people; the writing system and hieroglyphics; gods and goddesses; the pyramids and beliefs about life after death; important kings and queens including Tutankhamun and Nefertiti; and important archaeologists including Howard Carter.

RE.

- further develop our understanding of different beliefs and faiths

PE.

Cricket, gymnastics
Parachute, and forest school

Music

Exploring different themes and making music
Listening to a selection of music and responding through art

Computing

- Use search engines to retrieve information
- Internet safety
- Develop touch typing skills