

English -The children will be developing their skills in writing in different genres this term. They will create a story based on the story of the Windmill farmer, write a persuasive letter about renewable energy. a game review about the electrical game and learn about creating story form the BFG.

Maths

The children have become really confidence using four digit numbers and adding and subtracting them. So this terms focus is looking at fractions and decimals. Children will also learn formal methods for multiplication of large numbers.

Science-

Science is the main focus of our learning this term. Children will learn about the sources of electricity including renewables. They will learn how to make a simple circuit and then use their knowledge in their own electrical game.

Year 4 Spring

Art and Design and Technology

Children will be exploring the work of Alexander Calder. They will explore Dynamic Sculpture and considered whether he was an artist or an engineer. In design and technology the children will apply their learning in electricity to design and build their own electric game.

History –

Children considered how electricity has changed our lives. They will learn about the significant breakthrough and inventions through time relating to electricity.

French – Fruits and at the Market

