

Reception - Summer Term

Literacy

Fiction: Peepo!, Coming to England, Come Outside

Non Fiction: Homes in Many Cultures, Zaha Hadid, Amelia Earhart

Retelling stories and talking about non fiction books

Introducing new vocabulary

Writing captions and sentences

Reading practice

Personal, Social & Emotional Development

Building friendships

Showing resilience and perseverance

Scarf PSHE topics:

'Being My Best' & 'Growing & Changing'

Maths

Exploring numbers to 20

Making pairs, combining two groups, sharing and grouping

3D shapes & pattern

Position & direction

Communication & Language

Talking about events in detail

Using new vocabulary

Using new words

Engaging in and talking about non-fiction books

Expressive Arts & Design

Singing and exploring instruments

Collage & printing

Junk modelling

Roleplay opportunities

Physical Development

Country dancing

Athletics

Effects of exercise on our bodies

Leap into Life

Understanding of the World

How do we know something is from the past? Looking at homes from the past and the present

Zaha Hadid

Do all animals live in the countryside?
Exploring different types of habitats for animals

Why is Amelia Earhart important?